If such a team is formed, it will be entered with the others for the coming league games. There are quite a number of good baseball players among the Elks, such as Harry Wilder, Willie Wilder, "Sony" Cunha, Al Moore, F. J. Woodbridge and others, and although several of these are associated with different athletic clubs and have played in the teams of these clubs before, it is hoped that they will band together in the Elks' baseball herd and form a team which will be a formidable opportunity nent in the coming contests,

BISHOP GLOSES DOORS

OF ST. ANDREWS AND LEAVES INSTRUCTIONS

Prohibiting Entrance of the Second Congregation -- Meeting of Vestry Last Night in Prtory Drawing Room.

Bishop Willis has locked the doors of St. Andrew's Cathedral and gone off on a trip to Hawaii. His instructions are to completely shut out the Second Congregation from worship within the cathedral and these are being carried out to the letter by his subordinates. As a result, the Bishop is getting him-self very much disliked,

When members of the Second Con-gregation went to the church last cevning for the purpose of holding a yestry meeting. What confronted them was a series of locked doors and so cents a gallon at Hoffschiaeger Co.'s, they went over to the Sunday school King street. rooms in the priory buildings. This too was closed and locked and the Chinaman who takes care of the grounds and has always remained about the place on meeting nights, was

A lantern was procured and for some little time, the Second Congregation sat on the benches outside the priory and discussed the situation. However, there was no suggestion of force being Among those in attendance tosh, Migs von Holt, T. Clive Davies. George Davies, Mr. Jordan, W. R. Castle Jr., John Effinger, E. G. Keen and C. A. However, it is understood that the Bishop's last notice was discussed and t was decided not to attempt court proceedings, although such a step had sen in contemplation during the day.

A resolution was passed that the Second Congregation remain quiescent until a reply is received from the pre-siding Bishop of the American Episcopal church to the request for information recently sent forward.

Pastor Felmy of the Lutheran church, Rev. H. H. Parker of Kawaia-John I'sborne of St. Clem ent's and Rev. W. M. Kincald of Contral Union church have all offered the use of their respective places of wor-ship to Rev. Alex. Mackintesh and the Second Congregation, thus showing the trend of the sentiment of the other trustees received at the meeting last ing week.
